To the editor:

I recently had the opportunity to take part in the Annual City of Hudson Flag Day Celebration.

Having been born and raised in Hudson, and now calling Tivoli home, it was great to be back and see so many friendly faces in the crowds that lined Warren Street.

I commend the City of Hudson's Department of Public Works, Police Department and Fire Department for the outstanding job they did that day. The city looked great and they should be proud of their efforts in ensuring a safe and enjoyable day was had by all.

Congratulations to the Flag Day Celebration Committee. It is obvious that those involved in the day's event worked tirelessly to ensure a successful celebration.

As my family still lives in Hudson, I visit often with them as well as my friends from Hudson High. The city continues to have that strong sense of community, and it was very evident on Flag Day.

Thank you Hudson for allowing me to be part of such an enjoyable day.
