Cranna Establishes Regular Office Hours to Meet With Constituents

July 14, 2008

Tivoli... In an effort to improve upon his communication with his constituents, Tivoli Deputy Mayor Bryan Cranna is establishing regular office hours to meet with residents. Cranna will meet with residents at the village hall in Tivoli every Tuesday, from 7:00 PM – 8:00 PM.

Cranna stated, “As an elected official in Tivoli, it is my responsibility to listen and discuss issues that directly impact those I represent throughout the village. If it’s important to my neighbors, it’s important to me.”

He concluded by saying, “In addition to meeting with residents at the village hall, I encourage individuals to attend and participate at the monthly village board meetings, as well as contact village representatives directly.”

Deputy Mayor Cranna was first elected to the Village of Tivoli Board of Trustees in 2004, and has served as Deputy Mayor since 2007.
