

To the Editor:

After a few years absence, Tivoli Day was celebrated once again in the village of Tivoli on August 1st. A wonderful sense of community again filled the village as residents partook in the festivities. I am honored to have chaired this year's event. However, the success would not have been possible without the help and support of the following: Bard College, Williams Lumber, The Kingston Daily Freeman, Crawford and Associates, Gary DiMauro Real Estate, Tivoli Farm Market, M&T Bank, Blue Ribbon Academy, Central Hudson Gas and Electric, Tivoli Recreation Committee, Assemblyman Marc Molinaro, Trustees Michael Leedy, Trustee Vincent Manna, Tivoli Clerk Linda Gonnella, Deputy Clerk Gabrielle Green, Emily Staffiero, Tivoli Volunteer Fire Department, Tivoli Department of Public Works, John Murphy, Austin Sullivan, Columbia Landscape, American Legion of Tivoli, Mayor Tom Cordier, Trustee Susan Ezrati, Bonny Corrado, Christina Cranna, and Mary Creech. The generous support of these individuals is greatly appreciated.

Tivoli continues to be a unique and special community. Thank you to the residents for your support on Tivoli Day and throughout the year. I am honored to serve as your Deputy Mayor.
